

In five minutes: see how many objects you can make from the squares below. A square should be the main part of whatever you make. Use a pencil inside or outside of the square to complete your picture. Add labels if the identity is not clear.

